Customer Reviews

Jane Chambers' name is legend in theater as a daring playwright who put lesbian writing on stage before it was widely accepted. This play is memorable for its deep feelings, true-to-life characters, realistic situation. (Robin Rice Lichtig - playwright, NYC - [...])

I loved this play, I could relate to each character as if they had been friends throughout my life. It has wonderful clarity and so easily read. The author blind sided me though because it ended far too early. I wish it had a few 100 more pages!

Surprised at how funny this play is. I'm an actress performing in it, and have really enjoyed how relatable it is to everyone. Men, Women, Straight, Gay will ALL enjoy.
